

ONE OF UNCLE SAM'S HORSES. Out at Fort Bliss, Texas, where the United States cavalry has lots of room, Sergeant Cooper was able to train his horse to do many tricks. Jumping into the wagon is one of them.

NEW PET AT THE WHITE HOUSE. "Laddie Boy" has gained many friends in his few days as the property of President Harding. The Airedale was a gift of Toledo friends.

NEW SCHOOL HEAD WELCOMED. He posed yesterday afternoon on the steps of the school administration building on Nineteenth street, with William Pick (left) and Simon Geratz. Dr. Edwin C. Broome is at the right.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

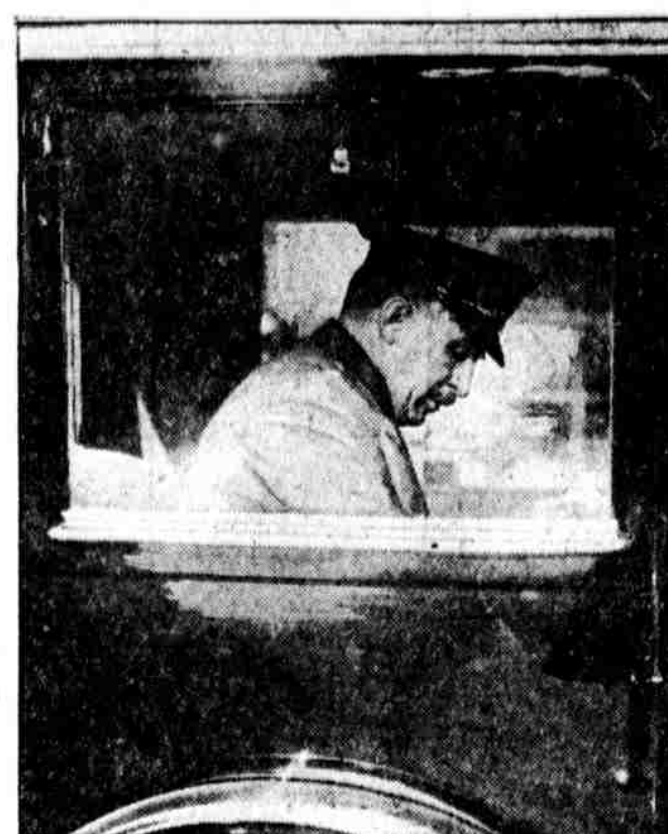

ARTHUR NADEAU, PETER SCHWIN AND ARTHUR CLOSE at work on a steel body in the shop of the Wood Hydraulic Hoist and Body Co., 3428 1/2 North Eighteenth street. The bodies are used on automatic dumping vehicles.

"MEL" TROTTER, THE EVANGELIST. He's conducting a series of meetings at the Bethany Presbyterian Church, Twenty-second and Bainbridge streets. Trotter hails from Michigan.

VISITING FRIENDS HERE. Miss Mary O. Wallace, daughter of the new secretary of agriculture, photographed at the New Century Club yesterday afternoon.

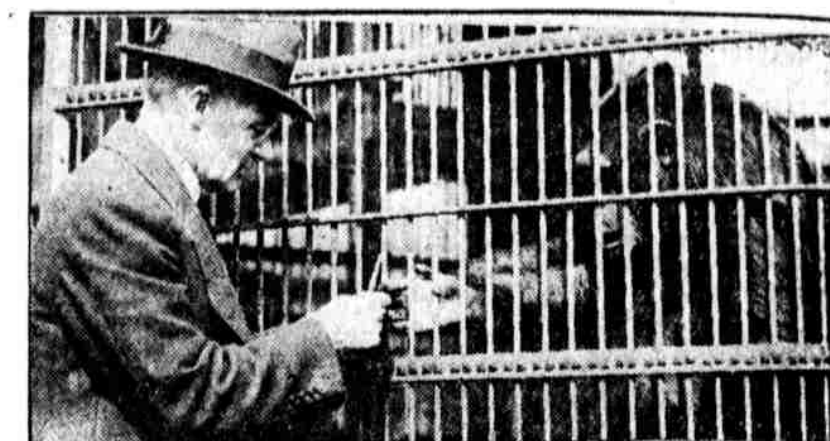

VISITS U. OF P. TRUSTEES. Major General Leonard Wood in an automobile at the West Philadelphia Station yesterday, on his way to the get-acquainted meeting with Penn officials.

MRS. E. B. KIMBALL, socially prominent in Chicago, after a dip in the outdoor pool at Belleair Heights, Florida. Salt water is pumped from the ocean.

SOCCER PRACTICE. Fleisher athletes get spring training by kicking a soccer ball about the roof of the mill at Twenty-sixth and Reed streets. J. McKay (left) and Lee Taylor.

A VERSATILE CITIZEN. C. Emerson Brown, head of the Philadelphia Zoo, manures the baboon, who sits quiet and seems to enjoy it.

TEACHERS AT BRYN MAWR PUBLIC SCHOOL AWARD JACK'S JINGLE PRIZE. From left to right (front row) Mollie M. Hazard, Viola C. Moser, Margaret Beale, S. Marion Wilt; (back row) Mary D. Bechtel, Sophie Kefer (principal) and Mabelle Bostwick.

ON THE JOB. David H. Lane was snapped as he sat at his desk in the rooms of the Board of Education yesterday. His health is improving fast.

"NAME SCHOOL GYMNASIUMS AFTER DEAD MEN." This statement was made by Thomas Shallcross, of the Board of Education, when placing his name to a school gymnasium.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN'S COMMITTEE of the Forty-second ward who picked today's winner of the limerick line. Reading left to right, seated, they are: Miss Blanche Whitney, Mrs. William E. Groben, ward chairman; Mrs. Ernest Etter, Mrs. Chas. Hornsby. On arm of bench, Mrs. John Squires. Behind her, Mrs. Raymond White, Jr. Standing, right to left, Mrs. R. W. Barwood, Mrs. W. F. Hollbrook, Mrs. Chas. Von Tegen, Mrs. Wilbur Stephens, Mrs. Samuel Moylan, Mrs. R. R. Dearden, Jr.

MISS JANE CAMPBELL talks on the vanishing of old Philadelphia in an interview on the Editorial Page.

MISS ELEANOR ANTHONY, daughter of the congressman from Kansas, who has returned from a tour of China.

PLAYS AGAINST WINNIPEG TONIGHT. Jack Bieruith will play wing for the All-Stars at the Ice Palace.

A GERMANTOWN MUSICIAN. When Reserve Patrolman Elmer Mollenkoff, of 55 East Seymour street, is on duty, he looks after traffic at Broad and Walnut streets. He has been on the force eight years and at his present post nearly four.

"UNCLE CHARLEY" in Washington. Charles Lee Patton worked for President Harding in Marion and will at White House.

MISS KATHARINE McCLOSKEY, 1906 South Twelfth street, Philadelphia.